

ADHS PTSA Academic Integrity Committee and Honor Council presents:

STAND WITH INTEGRITY

2015 Competition

It takes courage to live, work, learn and study with integrity in a society that does not always recognize or reward honest behavior.
Share with us your commitment to honesty.

Essay:

In 400-600 typed words describe an experience or situation when you were able to Stand With Integrity. What were the consequences? Why is having and maintaining personal integrity in all walks of life important to you? Is honesty STILL the best policy? Why?

Award: $150.00 scholarship provided by Joseph C. Peery, Jr. - Wells Fargo Advisors

Graphic Art:

Design an original image that illustrates honesty and integrity. Submit work on a labeled flash drive.

Image files should be no more than 3 MB.

Award: $100.00 scholarship provided by Smith Sinnett Architecture

Video:

Team of 2 students - produce a 30 second video on a labeled flash drive in a Quicktime file that promotes the ideals of honesty, fairness and integrity.

Winning videos may be exhibited publicly.

Award: (2) $150.00 scholarship provided by Joseph C. Peery, Jr. - Wells Fargo Advisors, and Private WRAL tour

Please forward your submissions with your name, contact information, and Spring 2015 class schedule to: Rm. 2814 - Ms. Jennie Williams: jywilliams@wcpss.net

Submission Deadline: Thursday, March 5, 2:30 p.m.

Winners will be announced on ATV and awards presented Friday, March 13

Questions? Please contact Jennifer Despain; jhdespai@ncsu.edu

ADHS PTSA will retain copyright of all submissions.

Joseph C. Peery, Jr.
Wells Fargo Advisors

SMITHSINNETT
architecture