

POLICIES FOR LECTURE...

Welcome! The talk you'll be attending is an exciting and life-changing event that's been presented at thousands of middle schools, high schools, colleges, professional theater companies and dance studios throughout North America for more than four decades. It has also been featured in every major newspaper and television network in America.

For everyone's enjoyment and benefit, we ask that you kindly observe a few policies:

✚ First and foremost: Please note that this lecture is designed to be especially entertaining and relevant to parents. Everyone under the age of 18 must have at least one of their own, actual parents present for the entire lecture.

- ✚ Absolutely nobody under the age of seven (7) can be admitted- with or without a parent. We also appreciate your consideration in noting that babies and very young children can be distracting if within earshot of the lecture area.
- ✚ Young adults (age 18 or older) will benefit profoundly from the talk and are welcome and encouraged to attend with or without a parent.
- ✚ Please make sure your cell phone is turned completely off, (not just silenced, please), before the lecture begins.
- ✚ Please discard all chewing gum.
- ✚ We suggest that all participants- especially teens and children- have a full glass of water just before the lecture. Hydration improves listening skills... you'll notice a big difference!
- ✚ Be prompt! Once the talk begins, no further students or parents can be admitted under any circumstances... sorry!

Thanks!
